

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Wisconsin Missing Persons Advocacy, Inc. was founded by Marsha Loritz, whose mother went missing almost 6 years ago; and

WHEREAS, their mission is to raise awareness and support the families who are affected by working together to advocate for and raise public knowledge of prevention measures through activities like their Missing Persons Awareness Event; and

WHEREAS, in the blink of an eye a family's dynamic can change drastically when they are instantly thrown into a chaos they are usually not equipped to handle; and

WHEREAS, every missing person is a child of someone and deserves to be found no matter how long they have been missing or what the circumstances are; and

WHEREAS, many families and friends of missing people never give up hope that their loved one will someday be found, and rely on help from the public and media to locate anyone who is missing; and

WHEREAS, together we CAN make a difference; and

WHEREAS, the 5th Annual Missing Persons Awareness Event will be held in partnership with the Brown County Sheriff's Office, Green Bay Area Crime Stoppers and Wisconsin Missing Persons Advocacy, Inc. on April 6th.

NOW, THEREFORE, I Troy J. Streckenbach, Brown County Executive, do hereby proclaim the month of April 2019 as

MISSING PERSONS AWARENESS MONTH

Dated this 6th day of April, 2019.

---

Troy Streckenbach
Brown County Executive